

APRIL is POETRY MONTH

Last week of poetry week! This week you'll learn about diamante and shape poetry.

Topic	Type	Monday, April 27	Tuesday, April 28	Wednesday, April 29	Thursday, April 30	Friday, May 1
LIBRARY	Offline	DIAMANTE Diamantes are the perfect way to practice descriptive language. A Diamante is a seven-lined contrast poem set up in a diamond shape. Line 1: One noun (or topic) Line 2: Two adjectives about the noun Line 3: •Three gerunds (-ing verbs) that relate to the noun Line 4: •Four words (the first two relate to the noun in Line 1, the last two relate to the noun in Line 7) Line 5: •Three gerunds that relate to the noun in Line 7 Line 6: •Two adjectives that describe the noun in Line 7 Line 7: • Renames the noun from Line 1 (its opposite)		SHAPE POETRY Also known as concrete poetry. Shape poetry is what happens when the poem takes on the shape of the subject. The poem can form the shape of the object or create the outline of the object. For example, if you are writing about flowers, the poem would take on the shape of a flower. If your poem is about fish, your poem would be in the shape of a fish.
		Directions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Think of a topic you would like to write about. 2. Following the rules for writing a diamante poem above, write a 7 line poem of your own. 3. When done, take a picture of it or read it out loud on video and send it to your teacher. Please take a picture/video of your poems & tag us (@kaimiloaes) on Facebook and Instagram as well! We would love to see how your poems turned out.		Directions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Think of a topic you would like to write about. 2.
